Web developer with strong skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and hands-on experience with React. Focused on creating responsive, interactive web applications and eager to contribute to innovative solutions in a collaborative environment.

PROJECT

T-shirt E-commerce Web Application

Technologies: React

- Developed a dynamic e-commerce platform that allows users to browse and shop for T-shirts.
- Implemented an Add to Cart feature where users can easily select and add products to their shopping cart.
- Designed a system to track product quantity and price, dynamically updating the total cost in real-time.
- Added functionality to remove items from the cart, improving user flexibility and shopping experience.
- Organized products into categories for easier navigation and product discovery.

NotiX Clone (TwitterX)

Technologies: React, Tailwind CSS, Next.js, Prisma, MongoDB, NextAuth

- Developed a full-stack clone of Twitter, implementing key features like user registration, login, and post creation.
- Users can create and publish posts, like and comment on posts, and follow other users to see their posts in the feed
- Utilized NextAuth for secure user authentication and MongoDB with Prisma for database management.
- Designed a responsive and clean UI with Tailwind CSS to enhance user experience across all devices.
